

TYLER DAVID ALBRIGHT HARDEN
(603) 686-4110 / tharden@wesleyan.edu / www.github.com/barca

EDUCATION

| | |
|---|--------------------------|
| Wesleyan University Middletown, Connecticut Majors: Computer Science and Economics First Year Courses: Data Structures, Computer Structure and Organization, Calculus I (Part 2), Linear Algebra, Economic Theory, Quantitative Methods in Economics, Intermediate Russian Second Year Courses (Fall): Software Engineering, Microeconomic Analysis, Discrete Mathematics, Third Year Russian | 09/2013 – Present |
| Phillips Exeter Academy Exeter, New Hampshire | 09/2009 – 06/2013 |

COMPUTER PROGRAMMING SKILLS

Fluent: Java, Python, Ruby
Working Knowledge: Standard ML, JavaScript, Node.js, Flask, PyMongo, Rails
Introductory Knowledge: Haskell, PHP, HTML

EXPERIENCE

| | |
|---|------------------------|
| Instructional Media Services Programmer Wesleyan University Part-time, paid position with Instructional Media Services. Duties include acting as the project manager for custom built software systems used to monitor the performance of media devices as well as maintaining, restricting and expanding the functionality of this and other Python, Ruby and JavaScript based systems. Approximately 25 hours per week during the summer and 7 hours per week during school year. | 03/2014-Present |
| Assistant Special Events Manager Wesleyan University Part-time, paid position with Instructional Media Services. Duties include assigning event coverage and supervising 20 to 30 media technicians to ensure quality media presentation and recording at University live events; making quality audio and video adjustments post-production; seeking and responding to feedback after the event to improve further services; training technicians; and writing annual employees' performance review. Approximately 4 hours per week. | 03/2014-Present |

Instructional Media Services Technician09/2013 – 03/2014

Wesleyan University

Part-time, paid position with Instructional Media Services. Duties include setting up projectors, speakers, and classroom audio-video systems as well as video recording lectures, sports events, and concerts for simultaneous webcasting. Approximately 10 hours per week.

Consular Assistant06/2013-07/2013

U.S. Embassy Tel Aviv, Israel

Full-time, paid position with the American Citizen Services. Duties included proper disposal of sensitive but unclassified materials, processing passport applications, answering the phone line for questions from American citizens living in Israel, distributing passports, processing applications for Consular Report of Birth abroad, processing Social Security applications, and maintaining and correcting databases of service providers for American citizens in Israel.

Camp Counselor08/2010, 08/2011, 08/2012

African Refugee Development Center

Tel Aviv, Israel

Full-time volunteer camp counselor for three weeks each summer for Eritrean and Sudanese refugee children ages 5 to 12. Supervised on field trips, taking children on public transportation; organized basketball and soccer games; assisted with craft projects; and distributed lunches, drinks and snacks.

HONORS1st Place, Wesleyan University Hackathon, 2014

Created FoodyCall, <http://foodycall.us>, a mobile application that allows Wesleyan students to order and review food at campus restaurants.

2nd Place, Wesleyan University Hackathon, 2013

Created an improved graphical version of Wesleyan University's housing selection program in 48 hours. Member on 3 person team.

National Security Language Initiative for Youth (NSLI-Y), 2012

US Department of State funded scholarship for six weeks of intensive advanced Russian language study at Kazan State Technology University, Russia.

Excellence in Computer Science Prize, 2013

Phillips Exeter Academy

Excellence in Russian Prize, 2013

Phillips Exeter Academy

Model United Nations, Best Delegate (1st place)

Phillips Exeter Academy, MUN Conference (chosen from among 150 delegates), 2012

Model United Nations, Outstanding Delegate (2nd place)

St. Johns MUN Conference (among 150 delegates), 2012

Boston MUN (among ~1,400 delegates), 2012